

LICENCE AGREEMENT

In submitting my paper to BulTrans-2019 for publication, I certify to the BulTrans-2019 Organizers (Organiser) and to IOP Publishing Limited (IOP) that: I have read, understand, accept, fulfil and will observe the following:

I. IOP Proceedings Publication Licence

1. Licence terms and conditions

By submitting my paper to the Organiser, I, as author/representative of all the authors, grant a royalty-free licence to IOP to use the copyright in the paper for the full term of copyright in all ways otherwise restricted by copyright, including the right to reproduce, distribute and communicate the article to the public under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY) licence (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/>) and to make any other use which IOP may choose world-wide, by all means, media and formats, whether known or unknown at the date of submission, to the conference organiser.

This licence does not transfer the copyright in the paper as submitted which therefore remains with the authors or their employer, as appropriate. IOP encourages authors to use the paper in any way, provided that, where possible, he/she displays citation information and the IOP Proceedings Licence Notice, for electronic use, best efforts are made to include a link to the online abstract in the journal and no author offers the paper to another publisher (prior to withdrawal or rejection) or includes it in another publisher's website.

However, a re-written and extended version of the paper may be published in another journal provided such re-use is within generally accepted ethical scientific limits and provided further citation information and the IOP Proceedings Licence Notice is displayed if possible, and for electronic use best efforts are made to include a link to the online abstract in the journal.

By granting this licence, the author warrants that the paper he/she is submitting is his/her original work, has not been published previously (other than in a research thesis or dissertation which fact has been notified to the conference organiser in writing), all named authors participated sufficiently in the conception and writing of the paper, have received a final version of the paper, agree to its submission and take responsibility for it, and the submission has been approved as necessary by the authorities at the establishment where the research was carried out.

By granting this licence, the author also warrants that he/she acts on behalf of, and with the knowledge of, all authors of the paper, that the paper does not infringe any third party rights, it contains nothing libellous, all factual statements are, to the best of the authors' knowledge, true or based on valid research conducted according to accepted norms, and all required permissions have been obtained.

2. The IOP Proceedings Licence Notice

The IOP Proceedings Licence Notice should be displayed as:

“Published under licence in IOP Conference Series: Materials Science and Engineering by IOP Publishing Ltd.”

Content from this work may be used under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 licence. Any further distribution of this work must maintain attribution to the author(s) and the title of the work, journal citation and DOI.

II. IOP exclusion

IOP reserves the right to exclude any papers from the Organiser's volume if in its opinion, or those of its advisers, are considered inappropriate for publication by the IOP. Such reasons shall include, but not be limited to, papers which infringe third party rights; contain libellous or unlawful statements; have not been peer reviewed in accordance with the Peer Review Policy; do not pass duplication check by means of plagiarism detection software; do not fit the scope of the conference.

The author shall indemnify, defend and hold IOP and Organiser harmless against any loss, damage, cost, liability or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees) which arises from any action or claim of a third party that his/her article contains libellous or unlawful statements or that publication of his/her article infringes the copyright or other intellectual property right of such third party.

In case of excluding a paper from the Organiser's volume by decision of IOP, the Organiser is not responsible and will not refund any fees to the author(s) of the excluded paper.
